Enfield High School

Enfield, Connecticut

Preface

Since our entrance into Enfield High School 4 years ago, we, the class of 1991, have gone through several changes and grown immensely. Although we are each unique, we operated as a class in times of joy, times of learning, times of sharing, and in times of sorrow.

Although we are leaving this school in search of a promising future, we will always carry a special place in our hearts for the teachers, the friends we made, and the memories that Enfield High School has brought us.

DEDICATION

Mr. Robert Bromage has been a teacher in the Enfield School system for the past twenty-five years. In 1966 Mr. Bromage did his student teaching at EHS with Mrs. Ann Johnson. Not only is Mr. Bromage an excellent mathematics teacher, but a friend to all. Known to some as "chief," Mr. Bromage shares with us his knowledge and his humor.

In addition to being a teacher and a friend, Mr. Bromage has coached junior varsity baseball and boys' basketball. For the past twenty-four years Mr. Bromage has been the varsity boys' baseball coach. Mr. Bromage relates to the student body in a very positive way.

Mr. Bromage makes life enjoyable at EHS. EHS just wouldn't be the same without the chief. Thank you for everything, Mr. Bromage!

Building For the Future

Many hours of practice under the tutelage of Coach Urrichiho allowed the junior varsity girls to hone their skills. The repetition of drills during practice allowed the team members to build confidence in their ability. They could then take these skills to the pressure of game conditions.

Each game saw an improvement. Early in the season the record was 0-8. As the team matured, they became a strong, cohesive unit which resulted in an impressive final record of 10-10.

The experience gained during this season will allow these players to ascend to the big show.

In a frantic struggle to grasp the ball, Abby Silva and Charlotte Smith reach beyond their opponent to gain possession of the rebound.

On their way to another victory, Tracy Cellillie shoots from outside to give the Falcons the lead.

Andrea Notman
January 20, 1973-October 19, 1990

We, the members of the class of 1991, will always remember our classmate Andrea Notman. In Andrea we saw a caring, giving, young woman. Her kind heart and generosity surpassed all others. We will never forget her beautiful smile, her sensitivity, her poise, her wit, and her devout spirit. Andrea was a special friend to many people at Enfield High School, and she will be sadly missed.

To Andrea —

"Faith"

*Thoughts and dreams of you all through my head,
I picture your face with no tear to shed.
I never felt such pain and sorrow,
But I know it will be less, tomorrow and tomorrow.
Each day I pray and pray for the right way
Because my friend I know we'll meet again someday.
I promise, my dear Andrea, we'll never forget you
Because we all have each other, and we will get through.
In time the pain and hurt will go by,
And someday my love we can altogether fly.*
